In judging, the primary focus will be on the evidence of the student's research strategy, process, and personal learning, which will be summarized in the research essay. Consideration of the product of research, while significant, will be secondary. The expectations for achievement will be judged in relationship to the applicant's class year and the requirements of the discipline.

Please type your responses below:

1) In your opinion, how did the student's use of library services, print and/or electronic collections, and other resources, contribute to an exceptional research paper?

2) Please comment on the content and quality of the paper, especially addressing the appropriate and thorough use of research materials.

3) How much initiative did the student show in identifying most of the key resources? Was the student creative and flexible in using the collections?

I agree that, if this applicant wins the prize, my letter of support will become permanent property of the University and may be quoted for publicity purposes.
