

Mullen It Over

Fall Events and Exhibits

Volume 7, Issue 2 • October 2021

The University Libraries have lots of events and exhibits to look forward to this month!

Virtual Library Events

Oct. 6th: Web Searching Makeover

Need to beef up your web searching skills? Come and join us for a review of new research and discovery tools (e.g., Lens.org) and search engines, updated features of existing resources (e.g., Google), and introducing new resources for specific tasks (e.g., Constellate for text mining.) Tips on current effective search strategies will be offered.

Oct. 27th: PIDS and your Scholarly Profile

PIDS (Persistent Identifiers) are playing an increasing part in how the scholars present themselves on the web. Learn the fundamentals of PIDS, the types of PIDS, how PIDS work, and the impact of PIDS on your research. Examples used include researcher IDs (e.g. ORCID), work IDs (e.g., DOIs) and publishers IDs (e.g.

Scopus). The session will end with a quick demo on how to set up your ORCID account in their new user interface.

Exhibits at Mullen Library

The Sacred in the Modern Oct. 4, 2021 - Jan. 9, 2022

The Sacred in the Modern features the art of Helen Schrider Higgins who earned her B.A. in 1952 and her M.F.A. in 1955 from Catholic University. While a student at Catholic, she studied under internationally known faculty artists, Kenneth Noland and Alexander Giampietro. Her art works (sculpture, ceramics, sketches), both secular and biblical in theme, combine traditional narrative with modern form.

An exhibit reception will be held Thursday, October 28th, 2021, between 4pm and 7pm.

Thomism Through Time Sept. 24, 2021 - Nov. 23rd, 2021

The University Libraries Special Collections has put together an exhibit featuring rare books and medieval manuscripts associated with the works of Thomas Aquinas. The collection is on display in Mullen Library's Main Reading Room until November 23rd, 2021.
